Returns From Three Weeks of Evangelistic Work

Pastor W. P. Lawrence returned the first of this week from three weeks of evangelistic work in Richmond. He was associated with the Detamore Flory meetings held in the WRVA Radio Theater. Pastor Lawrence reports attendance up to 1,100 people, and that more than 175 people came forward to signify their intention of taking a step closer to Christ and joining the Seventh-day Adventist Church. A number were baptized and others plan baptism in the near future. It is expected that many more will take this step soon under the local pastors of the Richmond Seventh-day Adventist Churches .Pastor Lawrence said that he plans to begin a spiritual help program for those in this community who may desire it.

Memorial Services Held For Missing AF Jet Pilot

Memorial services for Major Thomas W. Greenwood, Jr., of Richmond, who piloted an air force jet trainer which disappeared February 10 on a flight from El Paso, Texas, to San Bernardino, Calif., were held at 11 A. M. Monday at Norton Air Force Base.

The jet carried one passenger, Col. Harry W. Moseley, of Roanoke, flight surgeon, who heads the air force nero- medical staff.

Radio contact with the T -33 aircraft was lost as it neared March Air Force Base, about 50 miles east of Los Angeles. The presumably disappeared in that area.

Major Greenwood was one of Richmond's first airmen to enlist during World War II. He flew 35 missions as a B-24 pilot with the 15th Air Force in Italy.

On his 30th mission his plane was shot down and he was taken prisoner. He was liberated in 1945.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T .W. Greenwood, Sr., of 4405 Stonewall Ave.

Other survivors include his wife, the former Betty Jane Hayden, of Appomattox, and two daughters, all now of 2303 Crescent Ave., San Bernardo, Calif.
